Woodburn-Chandler Wedding Solemnized

The wedding of Miss Eileen Woodburn, daughter of Mrs. Janet Woodburn, and Floyd Chandler, of Anaheim, was solemnized at a charming home ceremony at the bride's home in Santa Monica, Friday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter before an improvised altar of dahlias, chrysanthemums and palms and in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a white satin ensemble and carried white bridal roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Mary Dinning of Hollywood who wore yellow net and carried yellow and orchid sweet peas. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Wilson Woodburn sang. M. J. Marley of Anaheim attended the groom as best man. Following the ceremony a wedding cake was cut by the bride and served to the assembled guests. Immediately following, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left for a honeymoon trip in San Diego county. Mrs. Chandler was attractively attired in a Persian green ensemble with black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler were graduated from Torrance High, after which they attended California at Berkeley and U. C. L. A., respectively.

NEIGHBORS GUESTS AT DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. George P. Shidler, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Neill, Mrs. Clara Curtis, Mr. Charles Curtis, and Mr. Raymond C. Young were dinner guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte. Honors at bridge were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Shidler.

SCOUTS SURPRISED WITH PARTY

A surprise party was given 28 boys, members of the Boy Scout Troop, No. 3, by the Mothers' Auxiliary at the Scout cabin last Friday evening. The Auxiliary, recently organized to bring scout mothers into closer contact with Boy Scout work, staged a typical Halloween frolic for the boys. After a number of games, regular boys' refreshments were served by Mrs. T. L. Brown, Mrs. T. Wilkes, Mrs. M. C. Bay and Mrs. Robert Lewellen, hostesses for the evening.

GUTTENFELDERS ENTERTAIN AT FISH CANYON

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder at their Fish Canyon lodge were Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Probert, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, Jr. Following dinner Saturday, bridge was enjoyed and high score prize was awarded Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Paour received consolation. Hiking and bridge furnished diversion for the group Sunday.

GUILD BRIDGE TO BE GIVEN, NOV. 12

Members of the November guild of the Catholic Altar Society will be hostesses at a bridge and 500 party to be held Thursday evening, November 12, at the Knights of Columbus hall on Torrance boulevard. Everyone is invited and tallies may be secured at the door.

MRS. CAMERON IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. M. P. Cameron was hostess when she entertained at a luncheon at her home on Post avenue Tuesday. Covers were placed for Mrs. J. Bonthus, Miss Kizile McDowell of Glendale, Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodburn and Miss Christie Cameron.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Al Harder was hostess to her bridge club when she entertained at her home last week. The Halloween motif was carried out in decorations and menu, and covers were placed for Mrs. Helen Ellis Harder, E. W. Huddleston, Ray Leslie, Jack Gill, W. H. Stanger, J. F. Stone, Charles Myers, Robert Sleeth, L. G. Barkdull, D. A. Murphy and Floyd Evans. Bridge honors were awarded Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, and consolation to Mrs. Robert Sleeth.

LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE ENJOYED

Mrs. Sid Hopkins was hostess at her home on El Dorado when she entertained with a nicely appointed luncheon Friday. American beauty roses were used as a center piece for the table at which covers were placed for Mrs. Gene Wannberg, Mrs. Baker Smith and Mrs. Herbert Summers. Bridge furnished entertainment for the afternoon and honors for high score were awarded Mrs. Summers, while Mrs. Smith received consolation.

Mrs. W. A. Cook of Washington, Iowa, sister of Miss Esther Maxwell, will arrive tomorrow morning to spend the winter in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wertz had as house guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyle of Kansas City, former school friends.

KEYSTONE NOTES

With Mrs. Maud Barnard dressed as the witch, and S. C. Sault playing the part of the hobgoblin, a delightful kiddie party was given at Hooster's hall under the auspices of the Woman's club, Saturday evening. Nearly 100 youngsters of Keystone joined in the merry-making and games which were under the direction of Mrs. John Hilpert, assisted by Mrs. S. C. Sault, Mrs. Maud Barnard, Mrs. R. C. Whitson and Mrs. Thomas A. Cowan.

Halloween decorations were used throughout the hall and prizes were given to the following children: Best costumes, Camille Marie Turomet, first, and Barbara Barnard, second; funniest costumes, Gordon Johnson, first, and Buster Bredahl, second. Refreshments were served following the telling of stories by "Old Mother Witch." Not one act of vandalism was reported in Keystone Saturday night as the children were entertained for the evening by the Woman's club, thus holding their interest.

A charming musicale was given at the home of Mrs. James H. Crumrine on Monica street Thursday afternoon as a benefit for the "carpet fund" of the First Christian church of Torrance. Friends and members of the Women's Bible class of the church were among the assembled group. Refreshments, suggestive of the Halloween season were served and a large sum was realized for the carpet to be laid in the church auditorium.

Present were Mesdames Don Tyler, John Selby, Harry Shoffer, A. P. Stevenson, O. E. Fossum, Dan Ald Haynes, Luther Pierce, Sarah Selby, Bert Dye, Loton Buckley Johnson, Emma Merriam, George

Elder, Sally Rowell, J. S. Babcock, Mabel Babcock, J. C. Clemmer, Scott Ludlow, R. V. Roelofs, Everett Travioli, Grace Gramer, M. M. Porter, E. E. Banks, Jennie Spittle, Victor Buckler, J. Nurse, of Torrance; Mrs. O. Haver and Mrs. Blanchard, of Moneta; Mrs. John King and Mrs. Shelhart, of Lomita; Mrs. Diecker, of Walteria; Mrs. Margaret Jenner, of Glendon; Mrs. C. G. George, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. James I. Jones, of Los Angeles; Mesdames George Nahmens, Pernia Piper, D. U. Keeney, and A. Thompson, of Keystone.

Halloween decorations lent an air of mystery at the home of Mrs. Barbara Berry on Dolores street when she was hostess Thursday night to the members of the Crochet club at a 6 o'clock dinner party followed by the playing of games. Prizes were won by Mrs. Harry C. Roque and Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Jennings for the adult games, and children's prizes went to John and Dud Kabisch, Andreo Roque and Eunice Maghee.

Mrs. George Nahmens presided at the regular meeting of the Woman's club, held Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. John Hilpert tendered her resignation as child welfare chairman and Mrs. A. L. Hudson was named to succeed her. Mrs. E. P. Howe, press chairman, presented the program of the afternoon. Miss Ruth Quinn, a member of the faculty at Orange Street school, Lomita, gave a very fascinating talk on her travels in China and Japan last summer. Miss Quinn, who was accompanied to the Orient by Mrs. Ann Lacy, a syndicate newspaper writer, said that they were met by Miss Gow, a former acquaintance of Miss Quinn while a student at U. C. L. A., in Japan and entertained by Miss Gow and the Japanese Secretary of State who had planned a full program for their entire stay in Japan. Many articles brought home from the countries visited were displayed. Four selections were played beautifully by the Novlette Trio, composed of Mrs. Lacey Wells of San Pedro and the Misses Emma Erickson and Dorothy Cochran of Lomita. The next meeting of the Woman's club will be held Thursday afternoon, November 12. Mrs. Charles LeBoeuf, federation secretary, will have charge of the program. Mrs. Will B. Austin, federation extension chairman of the Los Angeles district, F. W. C., will be the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Austin will also take charge of a question box. The members are urged to be prepared to have questions in regard to the federation work. Each member will be allowed to bring a guest at this meeting.

Mrs. George Symonds of Main street was seriously injured while crossing the street from her home Friday night. A car driving on the wrong side of the street struck Mrs. Symonds knocking her down and inflicting serious injuries. She was removed to the Torrance hospital.

Mrs. John Erickson of Pasadena spent the week-end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles M. Forrest, on Amelia street.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barnard and family on Dolores street, were Mrs. C. M. Turomet and daughter, Camille Marie of San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harshman and granddaughter, Marlene Miller of Moneta street, motored to Buena Park Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Loughboro.

Woman's Club Notes

Members of Torrance Woman's club enjoyed an altogether charming interpretation of Puccini's Madame Butterfly at the clubhouse yesterday which was presented by Mrs. Florence Minott of Los Angeles in the form of an operatic. Mrs. Minott was assisted by Miss Wanda Stachowicz in the role of Butterfly and Mrs. Helen Ellworthy of Los Angeles and Mrs. Jane Manson sang the respective roles to carry the theme of the story. Mrs. Ann Meservey, music chairman of Los Angeles District, who is an accompanist of note, added materially to the success of the program. Selections included Love Duet, Act 1, "One Fine Day"; Act 2, "Flower Duet"; Act 2, "Lullaby"; Act 3, and "Death Song", Act 3.

Members are requested to meet at the P. E. depot at 9 o'clock Wednesday to take part in the Armistice parade.

Fine results are observed in the membership drive. Six new members were received yesterday and six more are prospects.
